CLOSING SCENES OF THE SCHOOL TERM OF 1901-02.

The Close of a Very Successful Term Marked by a Brilliant Alumni Banquet.

DR. GEO. E. REED DELIVERED A VERY ELOQUENT GRADUATING ADDRESS.

The Diplomas Presented to the Graduates by Rev. W. Frank Reber—A Sketch of the Work Accomplished by Prof. G. W. Lenkerd and his Corps of Assistant Instructors.

The graduating exercises of the high school of this borough was held in the auditorium of the school building last Wednesday evening. In our issue last week we published a full account of the senior class rhetorical on Friday evening, May 16, the graduating address by Dr. John F. Goucher on Sunday, May 18, and the junior elocutionary contest on Tuesday evening of last fact that you have grasped the great secret of success in all the affairs of life, intelligence, close application, energy and perseverance, that you comprehend and appreciate the great object of our common school system.

ALUMNI OFFICERS ELECTED.

The annual meeting of the Reynoldsville High School Alumni Association

T. McClure; Impromptu toasts by Dr. John H. Murray and Prof. Willard Howe.

After the toasts the guests returned to the parlor and as the hour was then late they all soon dispersed for their respective homes.

A very successful term of the public schools of this borough closed last week. An unbiased comparison of our schools now with what they were six or seven years ago will show a great improvement in the schools, bringing them up to a standard that every citizen has a right to be proud of. The schools of this borough have gained a reputation in the surrounding towns in the past few years that was not known before. Up until the time Prof. Lenkerd took charge of our schools there never was such a thing as a graduating class. When the pupils got through the highest room, there was no high school then, they simply quit going to school.

We believe the junior contests and senior graduating exercises, with the higher branches taught in our schools, is an incentive to the scholars to do their best, even the younger boys and girls are looking forward to the time when they shall enter the contest and take part in the graduating exercises. If possible the junior contests and the graduates' essays and orations are better each year, and they will not drop below the present high standard because the young scholars improve their school hours with the aim in view of being promoted to higher rooms and finally to graduation.

A GLORIOUS DISPLAY.

Bearing in mind that all tented shows are bound to make the best possible public appearance as their culminating and most effective advertisement and that, therefore, what is shown for nothing is a pretty reliable indication of the quantity and quality of that which you may see; the real magnitude and resources of Walter L. Main's America's Greatest shows may be fairly estimated by the size and elegance of the omnipotent parade, at DuBois on the morning of May 30.

Hitherto the pageant of this show has been an exceptionally big and brilliant one; wherefore, it may be reasonably anticipated that all combined and with many rare and costly features added, will prove what young America would term "a stunner." There are great bands of music, chariots which are the finest pageant vehicles ever built, and alone cost a fortune. There are the herds of the biggest elephants; camels and led animals which is a sumptuous and fascinating Oriental revelation; a hundred or more glittering chariots, cages, elfin cars, and jolly clowns, golden allegories, and great cavalcades of performers and attendants, in radiant armor and resplendent dress, while every accessory is on the lavish scale of half a dozen imperial Roman triumphs. Cheap excursion rates will give everyone a chance to see this marvel of holiday sensations. Don't fail to see the Girl With the Auburn Hair who will make the most thrilling backward dive of 100 feet on the exhibition ground on the morning of the big show. Two performances, at 2 and 8 p. m. Door open an hour earlier. Seating capacity 10,000; 25 uniformed ushers.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me alright. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by H. Alex. Stokes, druggist.

DO YOU WANT YOUR TIRE SET RIGHT?

CALL AT
L. M. Snyder's Shop, on Jackson St., near 5th, Reynoldsville.

WE USE THE SCHAU COLD SET
TIRE SETTER—the machine that does it right.

It does it's work absolutely right—no guess work about it. All four wheels can be dished exactly the same to a hair line and we don't take the wheels off the buggy.

You can have your tire set in thirty minutes—
WHILE YOU WAIT
and it will cost you only $1.50 per four wheels—50c cheaper than the old way.

We would respectfully call your attention to the above machine. It certainly fills a long felt want in regard to tire setting. Bring the buggy or hack and have the tire set. If you don't say it does its work better than the old fashioned way YOU WILL HAVE NOTHING TO PAY. This machine and the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT OF TERRITORY (which includes Reynoldsville and a radius of seven miles) cost us a large sum of money and was purchased only after one of the manufacturers brought the machine here to my shop and we operated on a large number of wheels in the presence of mechanics, liverymen and others best competent to judge on tire setting. They all PRONOUNCED THE MACHINE PERFECT and the only reliable method of setting the right. No setting of rims by driving the bolts out and in again or knocking tire off of wheel. The wheels on your buggy are like the feet on your horse—if spotted, the balance is of little account. It will pay you to have it done right.
N. B.—We also do FIRST CLASS HORSE SHOEING AND REPAIRING OF ALL KINDS, and carry in stock a fine line of Buggies, Hacks and Delivery Wagons, wheels, tops, cushions, shafts, etc., and we usually have a few second hand jobs in good order for sale cheap.

We, the following liverymen, have witnessed the SCHAU COLD SET TIRE SETTER operated by L. M. Snyder and it certainly DOES ITS WORK PERFECTLY and we consider it the only method of setting the right.

week, giving a write-up of the commencement exercises up to Wednesday. The attendance at all these exercises was good, but the attendance at the graduating exercises Wednesday evening was not as large as was expected. The Wednesday evening program consisted of invocation by Rev. Perry A. Reno, singing by Ernest Gamble, piano solos by Edwin Shonert, graduating address by Dr. George Edward Reed, President Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., and presentation of diplomas by Rev. W. Frank Reber.

Dr. Reed had been highly spoken of as a public speaker before he came to Reynoldsville and the audience that assembled in the auditorium Wednesday evening anticipated the pleasure of hearing a fine address, and they were not disappointed. Dr. Reed convinced his hearers that he is an eloquent talker and a scholarly gentleman. His address was a masterpiece and should have been listened to by a large audience.

Prof. G. W. Lenkerd certainly deserves praise for trying to always get the very best talent obtainable for the commencement exercises in our schools. In speaking of the commencement Wednesday evening, Prof. Lenkerd said: "The best is not to good for our schools."

The pleasant duty of presenting the graduates with their diplomas was performed by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of Presbyterian church. In his short address Rev. Reber said in part: Members of the graduating class of 1902. Before distributing the diplomas I desire, on behalf of the members of the school board, to express the satisfaction which we all feel with the attainments of this class, as shown in the commencement exercises. The manner in which you have acquitted yourselves must be gratifying to your parents and friends, and reflects great credit not only on you and your teacher, but upon all connected with the administration of our schools. Of these attainments you may well be proud; for they evidence not only a laudable ambition, which augurs well for your future careers, but they also evidence the was held in Assembly hall Thursday afternoon and the graduating class was welcomed into membership in the alumni. The following officers were elected: President, Fred Smith; Vice-President, Miss Catherine M. Kerr; Secretary, Miss Susie C. Schultz; Treasurer, Frank P. Alexander.

BANQUET.

The last event of the sixth annual commencement was the alumni association banquet at Hotel Imperial Thursday evening, and it was an exceedingly pleasant occasion. The hour announced for banquet was 6.00 p. m., but a heavy rain and wind storm about that time was not propitious for appearing on the streets in pretty white dresses and fine apparel and many of the guests were a little late arriving at the hotel. A reception committee stood in the hall on second floor and gave the guests a hearty welcome as they arrived. An hour or more was spent in pleasant social chat before the assemblage was invited to the spacious dining room where the heavy laden tables were invitingly arranged to accommodate the participants in the feast to their fullest capacity. Following was the menu:

- Deviled Crabs
- Roast Fillet of Turkey with Cranberry Sauce
- Smoked Tongue
- French Fried Sweet Potatoes
- Saratoga Chips
- Chicken Salad
- Queen Olives
- New Tomatoes
- Radishes
- Colery
- Sorbet Fantaisie
- Salted Almonds
- White Bread
- Boston Brown Rolls
- German Rolls
- Strawberries
- Vanilla, Chocolate and Strawberry Ice Cream
- Fruit Nuts
- Angel Food
- Assorted Cakes
- Hot Coffee with Whipped Cream.

Following the sumptuous spread came the "feast of reason and flow of soul." Toastmaster Prof. G. W. Lenkerd performed his duties in an admirable manner, introducing the speakers, who in turn responded to the toasts assigned them. The first flow of eloquence in response to the toast, "Alumni," was launched by Frank P. Alexander. In succession came responses to the following: "Ideals," Miss Edna Lewis, '98; "Looking Forward," Miss Lydia Mellinger, '00; "Class of '02," Prof. F.
